Dear Peter,

Our family is two weeks post-workshop and still awed with Antonia's monologue performance and the lingering positive changes in her perceptions of her own abilities. We're looking forward to her reconnecting with her workshop experiences and translating her newly-acquired skills and confidence to future challenges.

I must thank you personally for your supportive comments to her after her monologue, which I could hear from my seat in the audience. Antonia will be writing to you soon to thank you herself and express her interest in attending additional workshops. She has our family's full support in anything she aspires to undertake.

Additionally, Mark had mentioned you wished to speak to him further about our daughter's attendance at future events. Please feel free to call him directly on his cell phone at 512-826-2263 or via email at mark@hillcountry.net.

Thank you again for inviting Antonia to participate in Beginnings.

All the best,
Laurel Siena
