Dear Peter:

Well, as they say – better late than never! I want to thank you for a WONDERFUL summer workshop and showcase this year. Anastasia had a wonderful time, and even has me making Tofu Tacos – her new favorite! She truly enjoyed her classes and instructors this year, and is continuing her study in a local music theatre class and is practicing for the Sound of Music auditions in November.

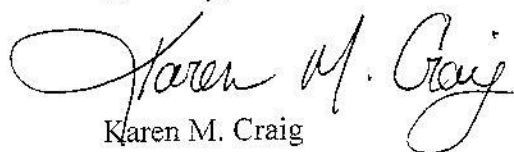

Unfortunately, shortly after we returned from the Workshop, Anna had an accident and fractured the growth plate in her ankle. She has been on crutches and visiting doctors ever since, so things have been a bit chaotic! We're hoping all will be healed in the next few weeks or so.

We received the invitation to London, which sounds extremely exciting! Because of the situation with Anna's leg, we're unable to commit by October whether she would be able to attend this Workshop. We would love to hear about it from you when you return and please consider Anna for any future opportunities.

In reviewing my Beginnings file, I was unable to determine whether I ordered the video of the June workshop and showcase but, since I haven't received one, I'm certain I must have forgot to order. I am enclosing a check for $69.95 for a copy of the video – please let me know if this price is no longer applicable or the video is no longer available.

Thanks again, Peter, and best of luck in London!

Sincerely,

Karen M. Craig
