Peter, it's hard to put into words just how much this experience has meant to Bailey. He was so full of stories and excitement! He returned to us with a new vigor for his future and his plans for making it happen. He made friends that he is keeping in touch with! We are so thankful that you chose him to be a part of this workshop and hope he is able to do it again in the future.

It was truly a dream come true for him to stand on a New York stage.

Sincerely,
Kristi Roberts
