Hi pdawg(the royal, wise strong and magnificent tizzle esteemed guardian of her majesty's flock) =)

First, I wanted to say thank you for the super fun workshop! (it's kind of a belated thank you cause the workshop was a while ago) I got to meet all kinds of really cool people from all over the US and take really fun classes with a bunch of awesome teachers.

Second, I wanted to tell you about these soybean things I found at BJ's. They're organic soy bean pods and I figured they must be super good for you cause they're green, they look a lot like vegetables, they're organic, and they have soy in them (well, they are soy, which totally counts.) Plus, I actually think they taste good :-D (no offense, but I wasn't exactly the biggest tofu fan ever. but the tacos were really good. jonet ate like 10 of them cause she didn't know they were tofu until the day after when I told her!) So, that was good.

Ooh, and did you see jonet on law and order? She was on one of the law and order shows, I forget whether it was SVU or Criminal Intent or something else. She was in the first 2 minutes and she had like 5 lines and it was AWESOME! She was telling me about when she went to film it. She has motion sickness so she can't go on carnival rides or anything, but her scene was in a playground and she had to be spun around on a swing really fast. But it was ok cause she said that the tofu at the cast lunch table was really good and it helped settle her stomach. Personally, I'm just amazed at the fact that jonet was actually on an actual TV show and I saw her ON TV! It was cool!

Another thing was that I'm soooo excited about getting a lead in my school play!!! Last year I was just in the ensemble and it was a tiny bit boring when we went to full show rehearsals and I was only in 3 scenes so I had to sit there and listen to the whole Fiddler on the Roof play like 8 times. It's nice the first and second time, but when you can recite every line without even a script it's a tad annoying, especially when the play is 2 and a half hours long. But this year I have a whole bunch of lines and I'm actually in most of the scenes! Plus I even get my own solo! It's going to be sooo much fun! :-) And, my best friend Gracie is another lead that my character's friends with, so it works out well.

So in conclusion, thank you for the workshop and all the completely wonderful stuff there!

Sincerely,
Samantha Edelman

Jonet said you remembered me (and thought I was "a nut. In a good way." - Jonet) but then again jonet also said that my mom and her mom were talking about the letters we got inviting us back and my mom swears she never got a letter. And I kinda believe her bc i was pretty sad for a while and she still didn't tell me she got it. Well anyway thanks for everything! Bye!
