Peter~

Your workshop is the best! Arnold Mungoli's class and Linda's class were superior. I learned about presenting myself with a good first impression and selling myself to the director first thing. I also liked Ben Cameron's class because he is a strong, powerful dancer. He was also in one of my favorite plays, Wicked! Personally, I don't think the food was half bad. The tofu and breakfast sausage were actually quit yummy. The cereal was amazing! I always had second servings of it! I hope to see you again!
