Dear Peter,

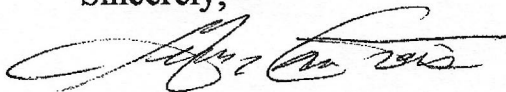

A quick note to thank you for the help, encouragement and experience you gave our daughter Rebecca in her quest for a career in theater and to let you know that she's still at it.

She got her A.B. (as a drama major, of course) from Vassar College in '05 and is now living and working in New York performing with several Off Off B'way production companies - one of them, Nosedive Productions, co-founded by her brother James who is the troupe's resident writer. I've no idea how both our kids got bitten by the theater bug, but bitten they got and their lives are the better for it.

Frankly, when Becky begged me to take her to your introductory program in Bedford, NH, way back when, I was more than little skeptical. Having grown up in New York, the son of a native New Yorker - a Madison Ave ad man - I came by it honestly. But my wife Louise and I felt it important to let both our children fly to the light that attracted them and it was on the stage. Again, go figure.

So, again, thank you and I hope you have a happy and healthy holiday.

Sincerely,

George S. Comtois
