Dear Peter,

Thank you so much for giving Jamie the opportunity to attend your recent London workshop. She had such a wonderful time! She had so much to share right away when we picked her up and even now a few days later, she brings something up about the experience. After we greeted each other, she said we have to go to Stratford; she loved it there! She said "Romeo and Juliet" was AMAZING. This was a perfect time for her to have seen the play since she read it in her English class this past fall. (By the way...she was really impressed with the front-row seats!) Jamie didn't complain about the food at all, matter of fact, she hopes you'll be sending the tofu recipes. She especially liked the barbecue tofu.

It sounds as if the classes, plays and tours were all great. We're wondering when you'll set something like this up for the parents?!

Please give a big thank you to all of your chaperones, too. I know Jamie enjoyed getting to know Tess and Chelsea. We felt that you kept all the kids safe and busy and gave them a great educational experience with a lot of fun as well!

Thanks Again,

Laura and Bob Cherf
